Program: Summer Servants Mission Trip
Organization: Brady Faith Center
Job Level: Paid Internship
Dates: June 18-July 27, 2018

General Description

Summer Servants is an overnight mission trip in Syracuse, NY, which runs for 2 weeks in July. Join a team of interns to run this summer camp for teenagers that teaches faith, service, and community. As an intern, you would be expected to participate in a week of social justice training, commit to 15-20 hours per week leading up to camp, and stay overnight at camp during both weeks.

During the weeks of camp you will be expected to take directives from the Camp Coordinator, act responsibly and collaboratively with the team, engage with teenagers from different churches, share your faith and life-story, perform your job responsibilities and have fun.

Overview

You will be responsible for creating and maintaining a welcoming environment at the camp home-site. About 60 participants each week live at DeWitt Community Church in DeWitt, NY, and use the space during free time and morning and night programs. Your job is to focus on keeping the rooms usable, clean, properly set-up and welcoming to participants.

Specifics

- Oversee the gymnasium, kitchen, hallway and large group room
 - o Overall Cleanliness
 - o Proper usage
 - o Lead the team in set-up/clean up from group activities
- Use creativity to communicate the camp theme in each of the spaces listed above
- Engage with campers while they are at DeWitt Community Church
- Lead the teams assigned to daily homesite jobs, such as breakfast and dinner set-up/clean-up or nighttime clean up
- Be a part of the overall camp staff to run camp efficiently and effectively. You will be expected to help in the other areas of camp leadership and responsibilities as needed
